to working families. Now more than everjve need investment in jobs that pay prevailing wages and provide the health arid retirement benefits that enable families to enjoy the security of lives in the middle class. We need increased funding of infrastructure to remain competitive. And we must commit resources to developing renewable and alternative energy sources for the jobs it will create and the environment it will sustain. We are counting on you to insure the working men and women of New York are not left behind. Please direct any inquiries to Mike McGuire, Director, at 212-452-9501.

Sincerely,

The Mason Tenders District Council PAC
